NUMBERS High-Single Wardrobe

Almost from head to toe dressed in lots of details - this must be our NUMBERS collection cabinet! The cabinet is not only very capacious, which makes it popular with parents, but also provides a huge range of educational opportunities. By interacting with a piece of furniture, your child learns to count and recognize the first numbers written in Braille, learns the different arrangements, relationships between elements and proportions. It is an extremely functional and beautiful piece of furniture, supporting the development of the youngest every day.

NUMBERS

One, two, three - you count! All the elements that landed on the fronts of our furniture introduce children to the world of numbers. Through play, the child interacts with furniture, learns different arrangements, proportions, dependencies and learns to count by adding new elements.

The details developed in detail arouse the curiosity of the youngest, successfully performing a decorative and educational function.
